

Typical graphic columnar sections of the Chappel formation.

1. Section of Chappel formation near head of Battle Branch, near the east line of the Fritz Fuchs ranch, three-fourths of a mile up the branch from Pedernales River, Blanco County (Coord. HH-45, Pl. 1).
2. About 500 feet southwest of Espeyville Church, Burnet County (Coord. HH-21, Pl. 1).
3. Dofflemeyer ranch,  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles south and one-half mile east of Chappel along small branch near ranch headquarters, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-51; Coord. AA-20, Pl. 1).
4. Julian Millican ranch, 0.2 of a mile west of Chappel-San Saba road and  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles due west of Chappel near cattle tank, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-54; Coord. Z-19, Pl. 1).
5. On Pool Branch, about one-fourth of a mile west of junction with Rough Creek, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-123; Coord. Z-17, Pl. 1).
6. On San Saba-Chappel road, 3 miles southeast of San Saba, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-21; Coord. X-16, Pl. 1).
7. Southwest side of outlier on E. H. Grey ranch, 10 miles southwest of San Saba and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles due west of Wallace Creek road, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-58; Coord. T-17, Pl. 1).

8. On King Branch, 1,300 feet north of King Spring, north side of creek, 0.6 of a mile south of Maxwell Crossing, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-124; Coord. R-17, Pl. 1).
9. Gibbons ranch, south of San Saba-Brady highway, 1 mile east of McCulloch County line, San Saba County (Loc. 205-T-125; Coord. O-12, Pl. 1).
10. West side of small branch, one-half mile north of gate on Voca-Brady road, 4 miles southeast of Brady, McCulloch County (Loc. 153-T-79; Coord. I-18, Pl. 1).
11. On Honey Creek, 7 miles southwest of Mason, 3,100 feet northwest of road crossing on creek, Mason County (Loc. 159-T-4; Coord. I-33, Pl. 1).
12. On Llano River, north side of road, at White's Crossing, Mason County (Loc. 159-T-2; Coord. I-34, Pl. 1).
13. West side of Pecan Creek, on top of Tom White ranch at bend in creek,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles west and one-half mile north of White's Crossing, Mason County (Loc. 159-T-35; Coord. G-34, Pl. 1).
14. Leon Creek, 3 miles south and 1.5 miles east of Erna, 1.5 miles east of west county line, Mason County (Loc. 159-T-45; Coord. E-32, Pl. 1).