

Vertical sections of Quinn, Curry, and Craddock clays through Eastland and Stephens counties showing stratigraphic position, lithology of overlying strata, and variation in thickness.