

EXPLANATION

- Late pre-Cambrian

pCHs

Hazel formation (closely jointed, minutely cross-bedded, very fine-grained homogeneous red sandstone and siltstone)
- Outcrop of bleached, altered sandstone, serves as prospecting guide, constitutes gangue, and shows sporadic silver values
- Inferred position of vein
- Strike and dip of bedding
- Shaft
- Inclined shaft
- Cut or pit
- Approximate limit of drifts and stopes
- Approximate depth of bottom of shaft or pit
- HF Headframe
- Dump
- Ruins of buildings

GEOLOGIC MAP OF HAZEL MINE, CULBERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

Geology and topography by
P.T. Flawn and S.M. Awalt
September 1951
Drafted by D.H. Speck